Numerical gauges can be a great indicator of your group health. Numbers don't lie, as long as we don't lie about the numbers! What do your numbers say about your group health?

As you look at your group numbers, here are some questions to consider:

- Have my numbers dropped off?
- Are my numbers increasing?
- Have my numbers been the same for a while?
- Are there people on my role that I haven't seen in a while?
- In light of what my numbers reveal, what's my next step?
