Session 8 Viewer Guide

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. Who is someone whose faith you respect because you can actually see it in the way they live? What do they do that stands out to you?

2. Gaius showed love to people he didn't even know. What are some practical ways we can show hospitality or care to people we might normally overlook?

3. Diotrephes wanted to be first and stay in control. Where do pride and the desire for control most often show up in our own lives?

4. What are some excuses we use when helping or serving someone would inconvenience us? Which one are you most tempted to use?

5. John says, “Do not imitate what is evil, but what is good.” How do the people we spend time with influence the kind of person we're becoming?

6. Looking back over 1, 2, and 3 John, what truth from this study has challenged you or affected you the most? Why?

7. If someone watched the way you live this week, what is one change you could make so they would see more clearly what following Jesus looks like?
